Affirmative Defenses

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

37. Opposer's Notice of Opposition fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

38. Opposer's mark cannot be accorded the deference due a strong, inherently distinctive and/or arbitrary mark, because it is neither strong, inherently distinctive, nor arbitrary.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

39. There is no dilution of Opposer's pleaded mark "CAYMUS" because, inter alia, this mark is not famous within the meaning of U.S. trademark law.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

40. There is no likelihood of confusion, mistake or deception because, inter alia, Applicant's opposed marks, which identify the source of medical and surgical devices, apparatus and instruments, and the pleaded Opposer's mark, which identifies the source of wines, are drawn to entirely different goods and/or services.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

41. There is no likelihood of confusion, mistake or deception because, inter alia, Applicant's opposed marks, which identify the source of medical and surgical devices, apparatus and instruments, and the pleaded Opposer's mark, which identifies the source of wines, are used in different marketing channels.

Opposition No. 91204667
Applicant's First Amended Answer

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

42. There is no likelihood of confusion, mistake or deception because, inter alia, Applicant's goods are marketed to sophisticated, medically literate corporate consumers and medical professionals who exercise a high degree of care in their purchasing decisions, and clearly understand the remote likelihood that a vineyard would be the supplier of the medical devices identified by the CAYMUS MEDICAL marks of Applicant's Applications.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

43. Opposer is estopped from enforcing the pleaded Registration under the equitable doctrine of unclean hands because the pleaded Registration was obtained and maintained fraudulently, deceitfully and/or by misrepresentation such that Opposer should be denied relief herein.

Counterclaim

FIRST GROUND

44. Applicant repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth herein. Applicant hereby seeks cancellation of Registration No. 1,833,996 because this registration was obtained fraudulently.

45. During the prosecution of this trademark Examining Attorney Linda E. Blohm specifically required "[t]he applicant must indicate whether CAYMUS has any . . . geographical significance or any meaning in a foreign language." Exhibit A; (U.S. trademark application Serial

Applicant's First Amended Answer

No. 74/386086; Office Action 01, mailed on October 15, 1993 to Mr. Scott W. Peterson (Caymus Vineyards' legal representative.) In Office Action 02 Examining Attorney Blohm entered an Examiner's Amendment made "in accordance with the telephone conversation of November 1, 1993 with Scott W. Peterson" stating in part "[t]he wording "CAYMUS" has no significance other than trademark significance." Exhibit B (Examiner's Amendment mailed December 2, 1993). This statement is false, as the word "Caymus" has geographical significance and indicates a region of the Napa Valley including the Rutherford, California location of Opposer's winery.

Facts Supporting First Ground

45. Originally the word "Caymus" was the name of a Native American tribe that "dwelt upon the Yount grant, to which they gave their name." (Exhibit C; Meniffee, Campbell A. , Historical and Descriptive Sketch Book of Napa, Sonoma, Lake and Mendocino at 19 (Reporter Publishing House 1873) (emphasis added). The "Yount grant" was an 11,887-acre Mexican land grant given in 1836 by the acting governor of California, Nicolas Guterrez, to George C. Yount as "Rancho Caymus", and included present day Yountville, Oakville and Rutherford. See Exhibit D; Rancho Caymus, Wikipedia, (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rancho_Caymus; accessed June 12, 2012). Caymus Vineyards' website indicates the Caymus Tasting Room is located at Rutherford (within the historic Rancho Caymus) at 8700 Conn Creek Road, Rutherford, CA 94573). A large stone marker in the small town of Yountville, approximately 6 miles from Caymus Vineyards' tasting room, prominently indicates the site of the original Caymus (Kaymus) village. Exhibit E (photograph downloaded July 13, 2012 from website <http://suzlorenz.blogspot.com/2009/07/caymus-indian-tribe-tribute-from-1950.html>).

46. The recognized geographic and cultural significance of the name "Caymus" is also evidenced, at inter alia, by four listings on the United States Geological Survey's Geographic Names

Applicant's First Amended Answer

Information Center, three of which are located about 7 miles of each other within the historic Rancho Caymus land grant in Napa Valley, California. Caymus (ID #233645) is listed as a "civil" feature located in Rutherford, California, and Caymus (ID# 1800354) is listed as a historical "populated place" located in Yountville, California. The third listing is Caymus Vineyards (ID # 1800355), listed as a "locale" situated in Rutherford, CA. Exhibit E; (search query conducted July 13, 2012 for geographical feature CAYMUS using U.S.G.S. Geographical Names Information System at <http://geonames.usgs.gov/pls/gnispublic>).

47. Additionally, a well-known Napa Valley inn named the "Rancho Caymus Inn" has been located at Rutherford, California about 1-2 miles from the Caymus Vineyards "locale" since 1984. The Rancho Caymus Inn website indicates that "[o]ur Napa Valley Inn takes its name from land awarded in 1836 by General Mariano Vallejo to pioneer George C. Yount, Napa's first land grant. A sprawling hacienda named Caymus Rancho was built on the site" Exhibit G; (Rancho Caymus Inn website accessed July 13, 2012 at <http://www.ranchocaymus.com/about-us>)(emphasis added). Applicant has admitted knowledge of the Rancho Caymus Inn; see Opposer's Motion to Dismiss pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. §12(b)(6) filed August 23, 2012 ("Motion"), at page 4.

48. The Napa Valley local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), located about 15 miles from Rutherford in Calistoga, California is called the "Caymus" Chapter of the DAR. See Exhibit H; (website accessed July 13, 2012 at <http://www.californiadar.org/chapters2/caymus/>).

49. A cable television distributor named Charter Cable advertises Charter Cable services for Caymus, California. The Charter Cable company services Caymus, California; including the towns of Rutherford, CA, Oakville, CA, Yountville, CA and various other nearby towns. Exhibit J (accessed September 11, 2012 at <http://www.chartercabletvonline.info/charter-cable-service-caymus-ca.html>)

50. Comcast Cable company advertises Comcast Cable services for Caymus, California. The Comcast company services Caymus, California; including the towns of Rutherford, CA, Oakville, CA, Yountville, CA and various other nearby towns. Exhibit K (accessed September 11, 2012 at <http://www.buycabletvpackages.com/cable-tv-deals-caymus-ca.html>)

51. The internet website for St. John the Baptist Catholic Church indicates that it is located at 960 Caymus Street, Napa, CA 94559. Exhibit L (accessed September 11, 2012 at <http://main.stjohnscatholic.org>)

52. The internet website for Joseph Kent Winery indicates that it is located at 1052 Caymus Street, Napa, CA 94559. Exhibit M (accessed September 12, 2012 at http://www.josephkentwines.com/home#!__home/email-form)

53. By stating that "CAYMUS" has no significance other than trademark significance and/or failing to correct this statement made in the Examiner's Amendment, Opposer knowingly made a false statement to the Examiner. Opposer's tasting room is located on the historic Rancho Caymus in Rutherford, CA and within a mile or two of the Rancho Caymus Inn. The Rancho Caymus Inn, which was built in 1984, was admitted by Opposer to be known to it. Opposer's Motion at page 4. Opposer chose CAYMUS with actual knowledge at the time of registration that the word "Caymus" had primarily geographic significance. Opposer chose to link its wine products to the Caymus locale at or near which the grapes are grown and/or the wine is produced.

54. Although the Examiner indicated that Opposer must indicate whether CAYMUS has any geographical significance, Opposer, with deceptive intent, failed to disclose material information known by it to the Examiner, in order to induce agents of the USPTO to rely on the false statement and they did so rely by issuing, renewing, and maintaining the Registration.

55. Although the Examiner indicated that Opposer “must indicate whether CAYMUS has any” geographical significance, Opposer knowingly, and with deceptive intent, failed to disclose to the USPTO that the Examiner’s Amendment contained a false statement indicating that the wording CAYMUS has no significance other than as a trademark, in order to induce agents of the USPTO to rely on the false statement and they did so rely by issuing, renewing, and maintaining the Registration.

56. Although Opposer has a continuing duty of candor to the USPTO with respect to the Registration, Opposer knowingly, and with deceptive intent, failed to disclose to the USPTO material information indicating that, at the time of the registration and continuously thereafter, the representation in the Examiner’s Amendment (Exhibit B) indicating that the wording CAYMUS has no significance other than trademark significance was and is false, in order to induce agents of the USPTO to rely on the false statement and they did so rely by issuing, renewing, and maintaining the Registration.

57. Applicant has been and will continue to be damaged by the issuance and existence of the invalid Registration issued to the Opposer. Applicant’s 1(b) trademark applications drawn to

Applicant's First Amended Answer

CAYMUS MEDICAL and CAYMUS MEDICAL (and design) have been published and Applicant has already invested resources towards commercializing products to be sold under the mark CAYMUS MEDICAL. Furthermore, on information and belief, as a direct result of Opposer's fraud, leading to the issuance of the Registration, Opposer made the invalid Registration the subject of a Section 15 affidavit alleging that the Registration was incontestable on June 11, 2000, thereby damaging Applicant's ability to contest the validity of registration No. 1,883,996. Finally, Applicant is damaged by having to expend legal fees and its time in order to defend its Applications in the present opposition against Opposer's invalid registration. Thus, Opposer's fraudulent procurement of the pleaded 1,883,996 "CAYMUS" registration has proximately caused damage to Applicant resulting from the USPTO's reliance on the intentionally false representations and omissions of Opposer.

GROUND 2

58. Applicant hereby seeks cancellation of Opposer's Registration for the mark "CAYMUS" in International Class 033. Opposer's Registration is not due incontestable status, and an action for cancellation is not time-barred, because the Opposer's representative procured the Registration fraudulently. Applicant repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth herein. On December 29, 1999 the Opposer filed a combined Section 15 Affidavit of Use Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1115(b) (actually a combined Section 8 and 15 Affidavit), alleging five (5) years' consecutive use of the mark in commerce after the date of registration, or in the alternative, the date of publication of the mark under 35 U.S.C. §112(c). The incontestability of a facially incontestable mark can be defended against and the incontestability refuted if "the registration or the incontestable right to use the mark was obtained fraudulently" 15 U.S.C. §1115(b)(1). Because the Registration was obtained fraudulently, as pleaded previously, the alleged incontestability of the mark is successfully overcome.

Opposition No. 91204667
Applicant's First Amended Answer

59. The term "CAYMUS" is primarily geographically descriptive. The wines identified in the Registration as being identified using the "CAYMUS" mark are grown, sold and/or made within the historic and famous Rancho Caymus area of the Napa Valley, and within a region referred to as Caymus, California.

60. Alternatively and/or additionally, the term "CAYMUS" has not acquired secondary meaning through substantially exclusive, continuous use, and is therefore not distinctive. Opposer has repeatedly, and for periods of time of well over a decade, failed to prevent the unauthorized use of the mark "CAYMUS" by third parties, including, without limitation, a well-known Napa Valley inn, the Rancho Caymus Inn (located 1-2 miles from the Opposer's listed address in Rutherford, California), and the local "Caymus" chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

61. Other third party users of the mark "Caymus", easily found through a basic internet search, include, without limitation: Caymus Equity Partners LLC, a Georgia-based private equity firm; Caymus Corporation, an Arizona general contracting firm; Caymus Capital, an internet-based private equity firm; Caymus Capital Group, LLC, a private investment group located in Los Angeles, California; Caymus Capital Partners, L.P., a financial investment advisory firm located in the Woodlands, Texas; Caymus Properties, a property management firm located in Sacramento, California; Caymus Townhomes, a housing development near Seattle, Washington and Caymus Cove, a housing subdivision in Meridian, Idaho.

62. Opposer's alleged CAYMUS trademark is therefore not distinctive and has no

Opposition No. 91204667
Applicant's First Amended Answer

secondary meaning.

63. For the foregoing reasons Applicant believes that it will be damaged by the continued registration of the mark shown in Registration No. 1,833,996.

64. Applicant has in their first Answer, filed July 18, 2012, paid the statutory fee of $300 for its counterclaim. For the payment of any additional fee that may be due, please use Deposit Account 135135.

ADDITIONAL DEFENSES AND COUNTERCLAIMS

65. Applicant hereby reserves the right to assert additional defenses and/or counterclaims based upon information learned or obtained during discovery.

Opposition No. 91204667
Applicant's First Amended Answer

WHEREFORE, Applicant prays for judgment as follows:

- (a) this opposition be dismissed with prejudice;
- (b) Opponent's Section 15 affidavit be declared invalid;
- (c) Registration No. 1,833,996 be canceled; and
- (d) Registrations for Applicant's trademark applications Serial Numbers 85/281308 and 85/279926, be issued to the Applicant;

ka'imūs, on the site of the present town of Yountville. The people of this village are the ones referred to by Menefee. Menefee, in speaking of the Indians of Napa valley, says, upon the authority of Mr. George C. Yount who was the first American settler in Napa valley: "At the time of Mr. Yount's arrival in the valley, in 1831, there were six tribes of Indians in it, speaking different, though cognate dialects, and almost constantly at war with each other. The Mayacomas tribe dwelt near the hot springs (Aguas Calientes) now Calistoga, at the upper end of this valley, and the Callajōmanas, on the lands now known as the Bale Rancho, near St. Helena. The Caymus tribe dwelt upon the Yount grant, to which they gave their name. The Napa Indians occupied the Mexican grant of Entre Napa, that is, the land between Napa River and Napa Creek, to which they also gave their tribe name. . . . The Ulucas dwelt on the east side of Napa river, near Napa City, and one of their words survives in Tulocay Ranch and Cemetery. The Susol tribe occupied the Susol Grant, . . ." In speaking of the population he says: "In 1843 there were from fifty to one hundred on the Bale Rancho, four hundred upon the Caymus Rancho, six hundred upon the Salvador Rancho, a large number on the Juarez and the Higuera Ranchos, and a still larger number at Susol. . . . A few remain upon some of the ranchos named, but there are not one hundred all told in the entire county." This last statement probably refers to the date of publication of the "Sketch Book." C. A. Menefee, Historical and Descriptive Sketch Book of Napa, Sonoma, Lake and Mendocino, Napa City, 1873; pp. 18, 19. as the Caymus. This is a Spanish orthography of the Indian kai'mūs and has been quite universally used. Engelhardt, op. cit., p. 451; Bancroft, Native Races, I, 363, 452; and various other writers. The name is preserved in Caymus rancho. The Caymus rancho was granted to Mr. Yount, above mentioned, and consisted of two square leagues of land about the present town of Yountville—Slocum, Bowen and Company, op. cit., Napa county, p. 49; also King and Morgan's Map of the Central Portion of Napa Valley and the Town of St. Helena, 1881. but is not now otherwise in use.

annakō'tanōma, The ending nō'ma which occurs so frequently on Wappo village names is evidently from the same root as -nom which occurs frequently in the Yuki proper and Huchnom dialects with the significance of people of. bull-snake village, on the town site of St. Helena in Napa valley. The Callajolmanas spoken of by Menefee See note 308. as living on the Bale ranch near St. Helena may be the same as the people of annakō'tanōma. Bancroft Native Races, I, 452. also mentions them upon the authority of Hittell.

tse'manōma, from tse'ma, ear, and nō'ma, village, in the foothills on the eastern side of Napa valley at a point probably about two miles northeast of the town of St. Helena.

wī'likōs (Southern Moquelumnan dialect name), at the head of Sonoma creek. Taylor California Farmer, March 30, 1860. mentions the "Guillicas" and states that they lived "northwest of Sonoma on the old Wilson ranch of 1846," as does also Bancroft Native Races, I, 363, 450. upon his authority. The reference is undoubtedly to the people of wī'likōs. The village of "Huiloc" mentioned by Engelhardt Op. cit., p. 451. may, however, refer to this village or to wī'lōk a short distance northwest. The Guilicos rancho The Guilicos rancho is an old Mexican grant embracing 18,833 acres of land, lying along the headwaters of Sonoma creek to the southeast of Santa Rosa.—Bowers, Map of Sonoma, 1882. includes the site of the old Indian village of that name. The name is also found as that of a school district in this vicinity Thompson, Sonoma County, p. 5; and Central Sonoma, p. 4. and is applied to the upper part of the valley along Sonoma creek.

maiya'kma, One of the villages near the town of Calistoga was called by the people of the Southeastern Pomo dialect xō'mūi, the people of this part of the valley being called ma'imfo. at a point about a mile south of the town of

— 270 —

Calistoga near the head of Napa valley. According to one informant this village was also called nī'Lektsōnōma. MenefeeSee note 308. mentions the "Mayacomas" as living near Calistoga, as does BancroftNative Races, I, 452. upon the authority of Hittell, and as do Slocum, Bowen and CompanyOp. cit., Napa county, p. 44. upon the authority of both Menefee and Bancroft. BancroftNative Races, I, 451. also mentions, quoting from Taylor, the "Mayacmas" as inhabiting "the vicinity of Clear lake and the mountains of Napa and Mendocino counties." It seems certain, however, that these people are identical with the Mayacomas of his list as above mentioned. The "Mayacma" mentioned by EngelhardtOp. cit., p. 451. as a "tribe" that furnished converts at the Sonoma mission undoubtedly refers to the people of this village, and it is not unlikely that by the "Tlayacma" mentioned farther on the same people are meant. The name is now used as that of a range of mountains which, according to Menefee,Op. cit., p. 33. is divided into two branches, one on the west and one on the east of Napa valley. The name is also applied to the mountains extending northwestward from Mt. St. Helena,Bowers, Map of Sonoma County, 1882. and to a school district lying to the east of Healdsburg. This is also evidently the origin of the name "Mallacomes" which is one of the names given to the old Mexican land grantSee mū'tistūl. in Knight's valley.

nī'Lektsōnōma,See note 319. from nīLek, a species of hawk, tsō, ground, and nō'ma, village, just northeast of the town of Calistoga near the head of Napa valley. One informant says that this is simply another name for the village of maiya'kma.

tse'lmēnan,See note 319. from tsel, charcoal, me, water, and nan, a well or other deep hole containing water, near the foot-hills at a point about a mile north of the town of Calistoga.

mū'tistūl, from mū'ti, north, and tūl, large valley, in Knight's valley, in the mountains separating the drainage of Russian river from that of Napa river, and at a point about four and one-half miles west of the town of Calistoga. GibbsSchoolcraft, III, 110. mentions the "Mutistul" as living "between the heads of Napa and Potos creeks," as does also BancroftNative Races, I, 452. upon Gibbs' authority. This name may also be the source of "Multiculmo" given by EngelhardtOp. cit., p. 451. as one of the "tribes" with converts at Sonoma mission. The old Berryessa rancho "Mallacomes or Muristul y Plan de Agua Caliente"According to Slocum, Bowen and Company, op. cit., Napa Co., p. 50, this rancho, consisting of 17,742 acres, was located "near the head of Napa valley, embracing the site of Calistoga and the country adjacent thereto," while Bowers on his "Map of Sonoma County" locates it in Knight's valley and gives it as comprising only 12,540 acres. undoubtedly derived its name from this village.

kō'ticōmōta, from ko'tic, black oak, and mō'ta, hill, or tcelhe'lle (Southern Pomo dialect name), from tcel, white oak (?), and he'lle, flat, at a point about half a mile northeast of the eastern end of the Alexander valley bridge across Russian river, and about five and a half miles northeast of the town of Healdsburg. According to the story of the Pomo-Wappo warSee note 307. this village with others in Alexander valley was formerly occupied by the Southern Pomo, who at that time owned the valley and surrounding country. After the occupation of this valley by the Wappo this site was inhabited by them, its name changing to the one here given.

cī' 'mēla, from cī', clover, and mē'la, place (?), or ōssōkō'wi, (Southern Pomo dialect name), from ō'ssō, clover, and kō'wī, valley, on the northeast bank of Russian river at a point about a mile north of the present Alexander valley village and about five miles northeast of the town of Healdsburg. According to the story told concerning the Pomo-Wappo warSee note 307. this village was the scene of the fighting. The Pomo formerly occupied this site, and later upon the Wappo taking possession of that section they also occupied it, changing its name to that above given.

pīpōhō'lma, from pī'pō, white oak, hol, tree, and ma, grove, or djelheldjīseka'nī (Southern Pomo dialect name), from dje'lhe, white oak (?), and djīseka'nī, ?, on the east bank of Russian river due east of the town of Geyserville. This site is located at a point about a quarter of a mile up stream from the Geyserville bridge. The people of this village, who called themselves mī'cēwal, and who were called by the Southern Pomo a'cōtca'mai or a'cōtentca'wī, formerly owned only the portion of Russian river valley extending from a point about three miles up stream from Geyserville southward to the small stream, called by them pō'pōetc, about four miles down stream. After the Pomo-Wappo war, in which it appears only the people of pīpōhō'lma and those of cī' mēla engaged, the territory of the Wappo was extended southward to the limits shown on the accompanying maps. The captain of pīpōhō'lma at the time of this war was mītcē-he'l, turtle anus, and he it was who led the Wappo against the Pomo and later arranged a settlement of the feud with them.

In addition to these villages along Russian river which were occupied by the Wappo, names of four other sites were obtained which, so far as can be learned, were not occupied by the Wappo but were occupied by the Southern Pomo before the Wappo took possession of this section, and for which only Pomo names could be obtained. These sites are all located in what is known as Alexander valley.

malalatca'LI, from mala'la, mosquito, and tca'LI, village, about half a mile north of Lyttens station.

aca'ben, from a'ca, fish, and ben, probably a curved pond, at a point about a mile northeast of Lyttens station.

gaiye'tcin, from ga'iye or ka'iye, manzanita, and tcin, to hang down, at a point about a mile north of Lyttens station.

kolo'kō, from ko'lo, mortar basket, and kō, long, indefinitely located but probably on the northeast bank of Russian river at a point about three and one-half miles northeast of Lyttens station.

The following villages are located in other parts of the Wappo territory and had no connection with any other people than the Wappo.

tekena'ntsōnōma, from teke, the mineral left as a deposit after the evaporation of the water from the springs at the Geysers in Sonoma county, nan, well or other deep hole containing water, tsō, ground, and nō'ma, village, just north of the Geysers near the head of the main branch of Sulphur creek and at a point about twelve miles a little south of east of Cloverdale.

pe'tīnōma, west of Putah creek at a point about a mile north-northwest of Middletown. This site is but a short distance north of the cemetery at Middletown.

lō'knōma, from lok, goose, and nōma, village, or laka'hyōme (Northern Moquelumnan dialect name), at a point about three-quarters of a mile northeast of Middletown and at present on the opposite side of Putah creek from that place. The creek formerly ran to the northeast of this site but since the coming of white settlers has been diverted so that it now flows to the southwest of it. The valley about Middletown, probably taking its name from this village, was early known as Loconoma valley, Slocum, Bowen and Company, op. cit., Lake county, pp. 4, 45. and the name "Lal-nap-o-een" "The Lal-nap-o-een tribe had their habitat on the St. Helena creek, just west of the present site of Middletown, in Loconoma valley. They numbered ninety but have dwindled down to ten. Chu-puh was their chief; —Ibid, p. 36.—In the Eastern Pomo district lāl signifies goose, and napō signifies village; thus giving the same signification as the Wappo name lō'knōma. given by Slocum, Bowen and Company to a village in this valley probably refers to lōknō'ma. Their information concerning this village was obtained from Augustine, a former captain of the kūLa'napō, one of the divisions of the Eastern Pomo in Big valley. Continuing, they say, "These are the Locollomillos of Bancroft's list." The statement made by Bancroft Native Races, 1, 451. is, "The Guenocks and Locollomillos lived between Clear Lake and Napa," and is made upon the authority of Taylor, who says, California Farmer, March 30, 1860. "Before reaching Clear Lake from Napa there was a rancheria called Guenocks, and in their neighborhood were the Locollomillos." However, in view of the indefiniteness of these statements, particularly the original one (Taylor's), and the fact that the old Mexican grant The Locallomi rancho was granted to Julien Pope in 1841 and comprised two square leagues of land in and about Pope valley.—Slocum, Bowen and Company, op. cit., Lake county, p. 50. in Pope valley bears the name Locallomi rancho, it is possible that the people referred to as Locallomillos lived in or about Pope valley, though it seems more probable that they lived in the vicinity of Middletown.

ūyū'hanōma, on the east bank of Putah creek at a point about a mile and a half nearly due east of Middletown.

Rancho Caymus

Coordinates: 38.420°N 122.370°W﻿ / ﻿

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Rancho Caymus was a 11,887-acre (48.10 km²) Mexican land grant in present day Napa County, California given in 1836 by acting Governor Nicolás Gutiérrez to George C. Yount.^[1] Caymus was the name of a subgroup of Mishewal-Wappo Indians. The rancho included present day Yountville, Oakville and Rutherford all within the Napa Valley AVA.^[2]

History

Through the influence of Mariano Guadalupe Vallejo, George C. Yount received the two league Rancho Caymus in 1836, and became the first permanent Euro-American settler in the Napa Valley. In 1843 he received the one league Rancho La Jota on Howell Mountain to the north of Rancho Caymus.^{[3][4]}

With the cession of California to the United States following the Mexican-American War, the 1848 Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo provided that the land grants would be honored. As required by the Land Act of 1851, a claim for Rancho Caymus was filed with the Public Land Commission in 1852,^[5] and the Rancho Caymus grant was patented to George C. Yount in 1863.^[6]

A town known as Sebastopol was laid out on the property in 1855. However, a town in nearby Sonoma County had already laid claim to this name, and the town was renamed Yountville in 1867 after George Yount's death.

After George Yount's death in 1865, the courts stepped in to sell the remaining portions of his property. Judge Serranus Hastings bought a large portion of the original Rancho Caymus. He later sold part of his property to Captain Gustave Niebaum and California State Senator Seneca Ewer.

Historic sites of the Rancho

- George Yount Blockhouse. In 1836 George C.Yount built a blockhouse and in 1837 erected an adobe home.^{[7][8]}
- Grave of George C. Yount. Skilled hunter, frontiersman, craftsman, and farmer, George Calvert Yount (1794–1865) received the first Mexican land grant in Napa Valley.^{[9][10]}

About Us

There is something special about the history of the Napa Valley, and when you visit, Rancho Caymus wants you to experience some of that history. Our Napa Valley Inn takes its name from land awarded in 1836 by General Mariano Vallejo to pioneer George C. Yount, Napa's first land grant. A sprawling hacienda named Caymus Rancho was built on the site and opened its doors to all those who visited the valley.

The current Rancho Caymus was built in 1984 by local artist and entrepreneur Mary Lee Tildon. Her design sought to recapture the spirit of the original hacienda. In 1991, the inn was purchased by the winemaking Komes family. The family has successfully enhanced the rustic elegance of the property, while keeping its history at the forefront of the design. Each room at our Napa Valley Inn is named for an early Napa Valley adventurer, and you'll find their stories, that go back to the early 1800's, in every room. Names such as Black Bart, Lillie Hitchcock Coit, and Robert Lewis Stevenson, as well as members of Russian nobility, saloon keepers, stagecoach drivers and even a famous San Francisco courtesan intertwine with the warm, homelike surroundings of the inn's décor.

Flora Springs and Toad Hall Cellars

As you venture the beautiful grounds around Rancho Caymus and the Napa Valley, the desire to "have a little taste" will overwhelm you. We want you to succumb to your needs, enjoy the bounty of Napa, and our award winning wines of Flora Springs Winery and Toad Hall Cellars.

Hotel in Napa Valley

At Rancho Caymus, a Napa Valley inn, you'll experience the wonders of Napa Valley with all of your senses. This hotel in Napa Valley, CA is nestled among the wineries of the world-famous Rutherford Bench Wine Region, Rancho Caymus is a quaint, all-suites Napa Valley inn which offers a unique sense of rustic elegance conveniently located in the heart of the Napa Valley.

Smell the fragrances of this world famous wine growing region. Located in the very center of the Napa Valley, Rancho Caymus Inn is surrounded by the agricultural wonder of world famous vineyards and wineries. Guests of Rancho Caymus are within a five minute drive of dozens of award winning wineries.

Hear the tranquility of lodging in a petite, 26-room Napa Valley inn. Each of these suites is distinctively designed and decorated to recapture the simpler times of early California. The two story hacienda style inn surrounds an award-winning garden courtyard. These elements give Rancho Caymus, more of the feeling of an "escape" than just a hotel in Napa Valley, CA.

Feel the warmth of staying in a family owned and operated Inn. Over the course of nearly 20 years, four generations of the Komes family have worked and overseen hospitality at Rancho Caymus in the same way they have crafted award winning wines at their winery, Flora Springs.

See the dedication to details. Built and maintained to honor the history of the Napa Valley; Rancho Caymus was created to be a Spanish Hacienda style Inn. The materials, architectural design, and furnishings are all part of that effort to recapture the spirit of Napa Valley's past.

Taste the bounty of the wine country. The Napa Valley is recognized as one of the world's foremost wine growing regions. More than great wines are produced here. The surrounding small towns of St. Helena and Yountville feature acclaimed restaurants, culinary schools, seasonal farmers markets, and gourmet shopping. Rancho Caymus Inn lies between these two culinary centers, no more than six miles away from either.

The Caymus Chapter was organized on April 15, 1972. Mrs. Earl Enholm was the chapter's first regent. The chapter's name was chosen for the Caymus Indians, a small tribe of the Mishewal Wappo, who lived in the Napa Valley. George Yount was the first white settler to receive a land grant in Napa Valley and Rancho Caymus was born. Most chapter members are from the Napa Valley area; however, some members are from other areas, as well. Local residency is not a requirement for membership in any chapter.

The Caymus Chapter meetings alternate between the last Wednesday and last Saturday of each month September through May, but not in December. If you would like to attend one of our meetings, please contact us.

We welcome any woman for membership who is over 18 years of age and who is descended from a man or woman who aided in achieving American Independence during the period between April 19, 1775, and November 26, 1783. Information on membership in the DAR can be found here.
